Building on our legacy and solid financial foundation

Strong balance sheet

- Corebridge’s asset portfolio is prudently invested, and our balance sheet is strong.
- Each of our U.S. life insurance operating companies maintains a strong capital position.

Highly rated for financial strength

- Our annuity and life insurance products are issued by our U.S. life insurance companies, which have received strong financial strength ratings from independent ratings agencies, reflecting their financial stability and their ability to meet their obligations to their policy holders and others.
- Here are the most recent published financial strength ratings for American General Life Insurance Company, The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York:

Agency	Rating
Standard & Poor’s	A+ (Strong)
Moody’s Investors Service	A2 (Good)
A.M. Best Company	A (Excellent)
Fitch Ratings	A+ (Strong)

Last updated March 29, 2022. Ratings are subject to change at any time.

Ratings outlooks: S&P, Stable; Moody’s, Stable; A.M. Best, Stable; Fitch, Stable.

Note: Standard & Poor’s 21 ratings are a measure of claims-paying ability and range from AAA (Exceptionally Strong) to R (Regulatory Action). Moody’s Investors Service’s 21 ratings are a measure of financial security and range from Aaa (Exceptional) to C (Extremely Poor). A.M. Best’s 15 ratings are a measure of claims-paying ability and range from A++ (Superior) to F (In Liquidation). Fitch’s 19 ratings are a measure of insurer financial strength and range from AAA (Exceptionally Strong) to C (Distressed).

While ratings can be objective indicators of an insurance company’s financial strength and can provide a relative measure to help select among insurance companies, they are not guarantees of the future financial strength and/or claims-paying ability of a company and do not apply to any underlying variable portfolios, where applicable.

At Corebridge, we believe action today can lead to great things tomorrow. Action is everything.

Annuities are long-term insurance products designed for retirement. Early withdrawals may be subject to withdrawal charges. Partial withdrawals may reduce benefits available under the contract, as well as the amount available upon a full surrender. Withdrawals of taxable amounts are subject to ordinary income tax and, if taken prior to age 59½, an additional 10% federal tax may apply. An investment in a variable annuity involves investment risk, including possible loss of principal.

Variable annuities are sold by prospectus only. The prospectus contains the investment objectives, risks, fees, charges, expenses and other information regarding the contract and underlying funds, which should be considered carefully before investing. Please contact your financial professional or call 1-800-445-7862 to obtain a prospectus. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing.

All contract and optional benefit guarantees, including any fixed account crediting rates or annuity rates, are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. They are not backed by the broker/dealer from which the annuity is purchased.

Life insurance and annuities issued by American General Life Insurance Company (AGL), Houston, TX except in New York, where issued by The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York (US Life). Certain annuities are issued by The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company (VALIC), Houston, TX. Variable annuities are distributed by AIG Capital Services, Inc., member FINRA. Guarantees are based on the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company and each company is responsible for the financial obligations of its products. Products and services may not be available in all states and product features may vary by state. AGL does not solicit, issue or deliver policies or contracts in the state of New York.

The purchase of an annuity is not required for, and is not a term of, the provision of any banking service or activity.
